NAVI MUMBAI POLICE
DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The Navi Mumbai Police Commissionerate

The Commissionerate has been established on November 19, 1994. It consists of the Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation, Panvel Municipal Corporation, Uran Municipality, Panvel & Uran Talukas in Thane and Raigad districts. The total area of the Police Commissionerate is 1000 Sq.Km and the total population is 28,42,777 [Ref. Census 2011]. Under the Navi Mumbai Police Commissionerate, a total of 443 officers and 4660 staff are working, under the guidance of Shri Sanjay Kumar, Commissioner of Police. The Commissionerate of Police is divided into two zones and has a total of 20 police stations and various specialized branches.

Navi Mumbai has a major congregation of citizens working in Mumbai and residing in Navi Mumbai. Also, having a population working in industrial areas of Turbhe and Rabale MIDC. During the covid 19 pandemic, Navi Mumbai Police has meticulously planned and worked with District Magistrates and municipal corporations for enforcement of lockdown. APMC Navi Mumbai is a major hub of food and vegetable supplies to Mumbai and the MMR region. During this lockdown, police worked for smooth functioning of APMC and supply of all goods. Also, we focused on smooth functioning of Nhavaseva Port, largest Port, in the county.

PREFACE

With announcement of first lockdown in view of Covid-19 pandemic, Navi Mumbai Police, saw an opportunity in crisis, an opportunity to build a better rapport with the society and serve the community with all humility and dignity. Navi Mumbai Police resolved to keep its officers and men safe and healthy, at the same time, to serve the community, especially senior citizens and working women, residing in the area of responsibility of Navi Mumbai Police, with due sensibility going beyond its duty and responsibility. While strictly maintaining the lockdown, Navi Mumbai Police, has extended all sorts of support and help to all stranded labourers and persons in need. We are overwhelmed to publish this booklet which is a small reflection of our team efforts during COVID-19 management. I on behalf of Navi Mumbai Police, thank all Agencies, Philanthropists, Foundations and NGOs who helped us in addressing this crisis.

Sanjay Kumar I.P.S.
